WARNINGS TO DEFENDANT:

This Order will be enforced, even without registration, by the courts of any state, the District of Columbia, any U.S. Territory, and may be enforced by Tribal Lands (18 U.S.C. § 2265). Crossing state, territorial, or tribal boundaries to violate this Order may result in federal imprisonment (18 U.S.C. § 2262). Federal law provides penalties for possessing, transporting, shipping, or receiving any firearm or ammunition (18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(8)).

Only the Court, in writing, can change this Order.

This Order is effective for six (6) months from date of service, and may be effective for one year if the Petitioner requests a renewal. To verify the validity of this order, you may contact:

Tohono O'odham Police Department, P.O. Box 189, Sells, AZ 85634
(520) 383-3275/(520) 383-3276

This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Order, you will be subject to arrest and prosecution for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed in disobeying this Order.

If you disagree with this Order, you have the right to request a hearing, which will be held within 10 business days after your written request has been filed in the Court that issued this Order. Nothing the Plaintiff does can stop, change, or undo this Order without the Court's written approval. You must appear in Court to ask a judge to modify (change) or quash (dismiss) this Order.

Even if the Plaintiff initiates contact, you could be arrested and prosecuted for violating this protective order. If you do not want the Plaintiff to contact you, you have the right to request a protective order against the Plaintiff.

NOTICE TO BOTH PARTIES

Violations of this Order should be reported to a law enforcement agency, not the Court. Both parties must notify this Court if an action for dissolution (divorce), separation, annulment, or paternity/maternity is filed. This is NOT a parenting time (visitation) or custody order. You must file those requests separately in the Tohono O'odham Civil Court.
