10 Your Duties in Responding To This Subpoena

11 Attendance at a Deposition, Hearing, or Trial. If this subpoena orders you to appear at a 12 deposition, hearing, or trial, you must appear at the place, date, and time in the subpoena. You 13 do not have to appear if the party serving the subpoena excuses you, or if you file a timely 14 motion with the court and the court quashes or modifies the subpoena. See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 15 15(e)(2). See also “Your Right to Object to This Subpoena” section below.

16 Production of Documentary Evidence or Inspection of Premises. If this subpoena orders you 17 to produce and allow inspection, copying, testing or sampling of designated documents, 18 electronically stored information, or tangible things, you must make the items available at the 19 place, date, and time set in this subpoena, and in the case of electronically stored information, 20 in the form or forms requested, unless you make a good faith written objection to the party or 21 legal counsel who served the subpoena. See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 15(c)(4). See also “Your 22 Right to Object to This Subpoena” section below.

23 If this subpoena orders you to make certain property available for inspection, you must allow 24 inspection of the property on the date and time set in this subpoena unless you make a good 25 faith written objection to the party or legal counsel who served the subpoena. See
26 T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 15(c)(4). See also “Your Right to Object to This Subpoena” section 27 below.

28 An order to produce certain designated materials, or to allow the inspection of premises, may 29 be combined with an order to appear at a deposition, hearing, or trial. You do not need to appear 30 in person at the place of production or inspection unless the subpoena also states you must 31 appear for and give testimony at a deposition, hearing, or trial. See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 32 15(c)(2).

1 If the subpoena orders you to produce documents, you must produce the designated documents
2 as kept by you in the usual course of business, or you may organize the documents and label them to match the categories stated in the subpoena. See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 15(c)(3).

3 Your Right to Object to This Subpoena

4 Generally. If you have concerns or questions about this subpoena, you must first contact the 5 party or legal counsel who served the subpoena. The party or legal counsel serving the 6 subpoena must try to avoid imposing an undue burden or expense on you. If you cannot resolve your concern with the party or legal counsel serving the subpoena, you may file an objection with the court. See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rules 15(e)(1).

7 Procedure for Objecting to a Subpoena. A subpoena may combine an order to appear at a
8 deposition, hearing, or trial with an order to produce documents, electronically stored 9 information, or tangible things, or to allow inspection of premises. If you wish to object to a 10 subpoena, you must file a motion to quash or modify the subpoena with the court to obtain a 11 court order excusing you from complying with this subpoena. Your motion must clearly say to what part or parts of the subpoena you object. You must file the motion with the Tohono 12 O’odham Court before the time for compliance stated in the subpoena, or within fourteen (14) days after the subpoena is served, whichever is earlier. You must also send a copy of any 13 motion to quash or modify the subpoena to the party or legal counsel who served the subpoena.
14 See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 15(e).

15 If you object to the subpoena in writing, you do not need to comply with the subpoena until a 16 court orders you to do so. It is up to the party or legal counsel serving the subpoena to first consult with you and engage in good faith efforts to resolve your objection and, if the objection 17 cannot be resolved, to seek an order from the court to compel you to provide the documents or inspection requested, after providing notice to you. See T.O.R.Civ.Pro. Rule 15(c)(4)(B).

18 Actions by the Court After an Objection is Filed. The court may take the following actions 19 after you properly file a written objection.

20 The court must quash or modify a subpoena if the court finds:

- 21 (1) you are immune from service or enforcement of the subpoena;
- 22 (2) the subpoena does not allow a reasonable time to comply;
- 23 (3) the subpoena requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or 24 waiver applies; or
- (4) the subpoena causes an undue burden; or

The court may quash or modify a subpoena if the court finds the subpoena:

- (1) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;
- (2) requires disclosing an unretained expert’s opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute, and results from the expert’s study that were not requested by

1 a party;
2 (3) requires you to incur substantial travel expense and you are not a party or a party's officer;
3 or
4 (4) should be modified or quashed in the interests of justice.

5 In these last four circumstances, a court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, 6 order your appearance or order the production of material under specified conditions if the 7 serving party or legal counsel shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot 8 be otherwise met without undue hardship.

9 Requests for reasonable accommodation for persons with disabilities must be made to the 10 court by parties at least three (3) working days before a scheduled court proceeding.
